Weekend School
Admission and Curriculum
Overview
(V1.0, August 6, 2007)

1. Objectives

The primary academic objective of the ICM weekend school is to introduce and instill the main teachings of Islam into our students by the time they are ready to enter high school. We use a very structured approach to teach Islam as a religion, and not as a set of cultural practices. A student who has attended 6 or more years of this weekend school is expected to have learned the following subjects and topics.

a) Recitation of Quran:

The objective of the school is to facilitate students in the reading of the Quran (not learning Arabic language). This however requires very active follow-up by parents at home. Children in 4th grade and higher are expected to be able to read Quran independently.

b) Memorization:

- I. Surahs - Memorize 20 Surahs (Al Fatiha, At-Tin to An-Nas)
- II. Dua's: Memorize dua's related to Salaat and everyday affairs.

c) Qura'nic Studies:

Basic Qura'nic Teachings - Study about Quran (Uloom-ul Quran), Commentary on selected Surahs from the Qura'n at higher levels (6th Grade and above).

d) Aqeedah

- I. Articles of Islam and Imaan
- II. Oneness of Allah (SWT)
- III. Worship and obedience of Allah (SWT).
- IV. Obedience to Prophet SWA.
- V. Life according to Qura'n and Sunnah
- VI. Life after death
- VII. Day of judgment

e) Worship

- I. Salaat: Goal is to make sure children know how to perform the Salaat before they get to an age when it becomes mandatory. Children in 3rd grade and higher are expected to know how to perform Salaat.
- II. Fasting
- III. Zakah
- IV. Hajj

f) Akhlaq

g) Seerah

Students will be taught about life/Seerah and Shamail of Prophet Muhammad (pbuh) - taught at various levels.

h) Stories of Prophets

- I. Stories of Prophets of Allah
 - i) Companions of the Prophet (SWA) – Lives of Sahaba
 - I. Abu Bakr As-Siddiq, Umar bin-AlKhatib, Uthman-bin-Affan, Ali-bin Abi talib, Abu Ubaidah bin Al Jarrah, Amr bin Al Aas, Khalid Bin Walid, Abdullah bin Umar, Abu Dhar Ghifari, Bilal bin Rabah and Salman Al-Farsi.
 - j) Introduction to Hadith:
 - I. Introduction to the science of Hadith
 - II. Known hadith book authors
 - III. And some important Ahadiths.
 - k) Introductory Fiqh & Shariah
 - Introduction to sciences of Fiqh and Shariah

2. Approach

1. The program is designed to be covered over 8 years of weekend/part-time schooling. The basic objective is to impart the required basic Islamic knowledge and expertise that is required of every individual Muslim men and women.
2. The whole program is designed for continual and gradual progress in the academic levels.
3. The program addresses the issue of different learning levels and requirements, i.e.
 - KG to 2nd Grade – Introduce basic Quran Reading, Memorize few Surah's, Basic Aqeedah, Ibada'h, Seerah and Akhlaq topics. Focus is to introduce basic concepts without going into details.
 - 3rd to 5th Grade – Focus on perfecting Qura'n Recitation, Memorization, Tajweed rules along with more details into Aqeedah, Ibadah, Seerah and Akhlaq topics. Basically getting trained to be young Muslim kid and engraving the Muslim identity.
 - 6th to 8th Grade – Focus on Qura'n as guidance, more in-depth study of Quran, Aqeedah and Akhlaq, Ibada'h and Seerah, Sciences of Hadith, Fiqh, Seerah as examples, building Muslim personality, and getting ready to take up the responsibility in the society as a Muslim. Basically getting trained to lead a life of a good Muslim.
4. It also addresses the issue of remedial measures for help in catching up the grade level objectives and requirements. This can happen for both existing and new students.
 - For lower grades (KG to 2nd), more focus will be made to see that all students in 2nd grade attains the required level at the end of the year. Students who need help will continue in the class until he/she satisfies the requirements.
 - For middle level classes (3rd to 5th), Students must meet the requirements for 3rd grade.
 - If not, they will take up a bridge course (Special Grade) to attain the level. This includes both Quran and Islamic Studies.
 - Same goes for higher level grades (6th to 8th), i.e Students must meet the requirements for 6th grade.
 - If not, they will take up a bridge course (Special Grade) to attain the level. This includes both Quran and Islamic Studies.

3. Admission process
